

For Immediate Release

August 21, 2019

Media Contact: Irma Garza, City of Harlingen, Public Relations Officer, (956) 216-5030 office or (956) 226-1673 cell

Ghost Town Blues Band to Headline Last Blues on the Hill for the Year

Harlingen, Texas– The City of Harlingen announces the special appearance by the Harlingen Consolidated Independent School District Jazz Bands at the Blues on the Hill concert scheduled for August 24. The high school Jazz Bands will join Ghost Town Blues, an international touring band and 2019 recipient of the Tennessee Music Award, Best Blues Band. The family friendly and free concert will be held at Lon C. Hill Park also known as Fair Park. The concert starts at 7 p.m. with the Ghost Town Blues Band scheduled to perform at 8:30.

This year, concert goers will have a chance to participate in the United Way of Northern Cameron County Stuff the Bus campaign aimed at helping students with school supplies as they begin a new school year. Attendees who donate two items of school supplies will be entered into a raffle with a chance to win Schlitterbahn Waterpark tickets, Sam's gift card, gift baskets, and much more.

What:

Blues on the Hill Free Concert

When:

Saturday, August 24, 2019, 7 - 10 p.m.

Where:

Lon C. Hill Park, 1217 Fair Park Boulevard

Why:

News From The City of Harlingen

This is the last event for the 2019 Blues on the Hill Concert Series organized by the Harlingen Convention and Visitors Bureau. Chairs and blankets are encouraged. There will be food and drink vendors on site and activities for kids. No outside food or ice chests permitted.

###