FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: January 21, 2016

City of Harlingen Mayor Chris Boswell to Present “State of the City” Address Jan. 29

City of Harlingen Mayor Chris Boswell will present the “State of the City” Address Jan. 29 at the Casa de Amistad in Harlingen.

The annual address is hosted by the Rotary Club of Harlingen. The event will be held from noon to 1 p.m. at the Rotary Club’s regular, weekly meeting.

Mayor Boswell will report on the city’s accomplishments and progress over the last five years. He will also share his vision for 2016.

“It is a great privilege to annually report on the City’s great progress to our Citizens,” Mayor Boswell said. “I’m really looking forward to reporting on what so many people have done to contribute to our growth.”

The “State of the City” Address is open to the public. Doors open at 11:30 a.m. Lunch tickets will be sold at the door on a first-come, first-served basis for $12 each. Lunch will be served to the first 75 people to purchase tickets.

Seating will be available for those who attend and choose not to dine. There is no admission fee, and there are no pre-sale tickets.

The Casa de Amistad is located at 1204 Fair Park Blvd. adjacent to the Harlingen Municipal Auditorium. For more information, please call (956) 238-0089.
