

HARLINGEN POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE
2016-0196

HONOR ♦ COURAGE ♦ INTEGRITY

Sergeant Jose L. Palafox

On Wednesday, August 24, 2016, the Harlingen Police Department proudly promoted seven Officers. The Department commends their performance and dedication and is looking forward to growing together in our commitment to the Community. Congratulations all our recently promoted Supervisors. Good Luck and God Bless each of you and families in your new journey.

Jose Luis Palafox was promoted to the rank of Sergeant.

Sergeant Jose Luis Palafox Jr. began his career in Law Enforcement, here with the Harlingen Police Department back in October 13, 2004, and he has been serving honorably ever since. Sergeant Jose Luis Palafox Jr. began his law enforcement career working as a patrol officer, working B-shift. After being in the Patrol Division for several years, Sergeant Palafox applied to become a detective, with the Criminal Investigation Division. Sergeant Palafox was selected from a group of candidates and was assigned to the Crimes against Persons division within the Criminal Investigations Division. After three years or so with the Criminal Investigations Division, Sergeant Palafox volunteered to be a member to a new Division that was about to open up, the Targeted Response Unit/Gang Unit. After honorably serving with the unit for several years, Sergeant Palafox was transferred to the Patrol Division.

Congratulations Sergeant Jose Luis Palafox!
