Community Immersion Program “A Path to Who We Serve”

The Harlingen Police Department held presentations last night at the TSTC EDC building featuring the results of the Department’s first Community Immersion Program: “A Path to Who We Serve”. Over the past few weeks, three groups of sworn & civilian staff explored three different cultures (Mental Health Community, Homeless Community, & LGBTQ Community) in Harlingen. The program was built to bridge mutual respect, mutual trust, and understanding into the many cultural groups that we serve. City leaders, HPD executive staff, sworn & civilian personnel, and community members witnessed the results of a lot of hard work and commitment to our community. All of the presentations were great and provided new insight into building better relationships in our community. Great job to all of our new Officers, Officer candidates and civilian leaders who participated.
