At approximately 3:37am on February 4, 2016, Uniformed Harlingen Police Officers responded to the Stripes convenience store (1700 South "F" Street) regarding a Robbery. Responding Officers made contact with the Clerk. The Clerk advised that a male subject had entered the store and asked for cigarettes and lottery tickets (total value $46.27). As the clerk asked for the money, the male subject placed his right hand in his pocket and demanded the money in the register. The clerk advised that he feared for his safety, but refused to give the subject the money. The male subject then grabbed the lottery tickets and cigarettes and fled the store. The male suspect was seen getting into a black 2005 Toyota Camry, which fled Northbound on South "F" Street. Detectives with the Major Crimes Unit were able to locate the suspect vehicle, and detain a male subject in the Santa Maria, Texas area. Through the course of the Investigation, the Detectives identified and linked the male subject (Feliberto Ramon) to the Robbery. Ramon was arrested and transported to the City Jail for processing.
