Harlingen Police Department Receives Nationwide Award for National Night Out Event

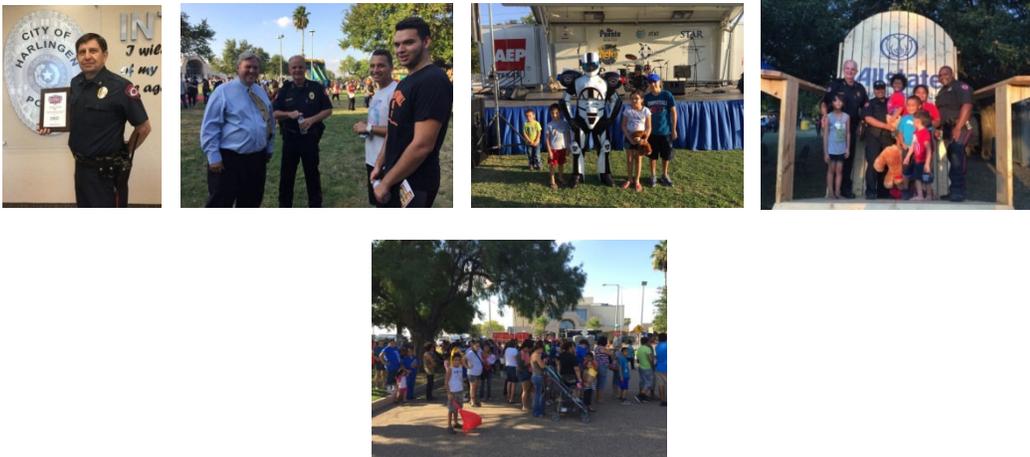

The Citizens and Community of Harlingen participated in the 32nd Annual National Night Out (NNO) Hosted by the Harlingen Police Department (HPD) held on Tuesday, August 4, 2015 at Fair Park. Our theme for the 2015 event was “Neighborhood Watch-Community Super Heroes”.

The event was a huge success thanks to all of the Harlingen Community to include volunteers, local businesses, and overwhelming turn-out from our Citizens estimated at over 6,000.

HPD joined 15,728 participating communities from all 50 states, US Territories, and Military bases worldwide to host and celebrate the 32nd Annual NNO event.

Continuing to build a Police Department that leads in Best National Practices for Community Policing, HPD competed for and was selected as one out of only 36 Cities out of hundreds of submissions to receive the prestigious National Recognition Award for 2015 (Population 50,000 – 100,000) from the National Association of Town Watch (NATW).

Thank you to the Citizens of Harlingen for a great Community – Policing partnership!
