ARRESTED Escape from Custody

On February 17, 2016, a male subject identified as Devin Ray Monsevais (a 19 year old Harlingen resident) was arrested pending arraignment on the charge of Robbery by Assault.

Before noon today Monsevais and two other suspects were escorted to the City of Harlingen Municipal Court where while awaiting his arraignment on the charge of robbery by assault for attempting to steal a pair of tennis shoes, Monsevais ran handcuffed from the courtroom and out the main doors of the Court.

Officers of the Harlingen Police Department, U.S. Border Patrol & Customs, and U.S. Marshalls Officers set up a perimeter around the suspected area where he was located a short time later hiding under a pile of cut grass in an empty lot behind one of the Bail Bonds buildings approximately 100 yards from the Municipal Court Building where he fled. Monsevais was contained during the short period of the search and was taken into custody without incident.

Monsevais is currently incarcerated in the City Jail pending arraignment on the Escape from Custody charges. Bond on the two Robbery charges was set at $60,000.00 ($30,000.00 each count).
