On July 4, 2016, at approximately 7:24 PM, Harlingen Police Officers responded to 200 Block of North 26th Street in reference to a burglary of a habitation. According to the victim, she was notified by neighbors that two people were inside of her home. When the victim arrived, she found her door had been forced open and that several items were missing. The witness was able to provide an accurate description of the suspects along with a description of their vehicle.

Officers located the vehicle parked near the 1500 block of Basin and made contact with the homeowners. During the investigation, two of the residents, Estela Silva and her son Abraham Silva, were positively identified as the suspects who unlawfully entered the residence. Both were arrested for Burglary of a Habitation and transported to the Harlingen Police Department.
