At approximately 6:00pm on June 4, 2015, a Uniformed Harlingen Police Officer responded to the Home Depot (4702 S. Expressway 77) in reference to a theft. The caller had advised that one of the detainees was being uncooperative with store employees. The Officer made contact with the Loss Prevention Officer, who advised that he had detained two subjects (one male and one female) after they had exited the store with merchandise that they had not paid for. The stolen items (four Milwaukee power tools for a combined total value of $366.00) were recovered. As the Officer attempted to affect the arrest on the male subject (Samuel Ulysses Lozano), he pulled away and began actively resisting. During the struggle, Lozano began punching the Arresting Officer in the head. While the Officer was attempting to arrest Lozano, the female subject (Roxanne Garcia) interfered by pulling on the arresting Officer. After a brief struggle, both subjects were taken into custody. Both subjects were transported to the City Jail for processing. The Officer sustained pain and minor injury during the incident, but declined medical attention.
