Harlingen Resident

On June 29, 2015 at approximately 1:03 A.M. a uniformed Harlingen Police Officer observed three male subjects on the 1700 block of South F Street near a business where there had been recent thefts. When the officer made contact with the suspects two of the males took off running on foot. The officer was able to catch one of the male suspects identified as Matthew Martinez. When the officer attempted to place him under arrest, Mr. Martinez began to pull away and resist arrest. Once in handcuffs Matthew Martinez was transported to the Harlingen City Jail where he failed to identify himself by giving a false date of birth. He was charged with evading arrest/detention, resisting arrest, fail to identify, and public intoxication.
